It was nice to see several of you at our first PTO meeting of the year. The PTO is such an important partner in our students' education. I appreciate their efforts in welcoming all the new students and families to school with KES gear and look forward to the new KES gear that will be offered in the coming weeks. There are numerous PTO committees forming and many opportunities to get involved. Even if a committee seems filled, an offer to help will be much appreciated. We received an estimated shipping date for the new playground equipment. The materials should be leaving the factory on October 1st. If that happens, we will be looking at installation in early October.

Thank you to all who were able to join us for our virtual curriculum night. I know that it doesn't replace being here in-person, but I hope you were able to learn a bit more about a typical day in the life of your child. The students and staff continue to do a wonderful job of creating a sense of community within the school while following our COVID protocols.

Just a reminder that there is no school for students on October 8th. Our staff will be engaged in professional development on that day. School will also be closed on October 11th. The book fair will be running from October 12th to the 15th. We have a minimum day on October 27th and 28th for parent/teacher conferences. More details regarding the parent/teacher conferences will be provided as it gets closer, but there will be a virtual option available again this year. Fire prevention week takes place in October as well. Although the fire department will not be able to join us, they will kindly be providing all the children with important fire safety information and some goodies.

The cooler temperatures are finally here, enjoy this beautiful weather.

Toys Wanted

What is inside your toy box at home? If it is no longer being used, think about making a donation to support play! Kindergarten and first grade classrooms are looking for a few good toys for indoor recess time. The toys should be able to fit inside a zip lock storage bag. Think about unused stem building toys, Legos, fun figurines, and creative (non-messy art and sensory) toys. Even if you no longer have a full set, we may be able to combine toys to make some fun play sets for our youngest learners!

October 2nd is National School Custodian Day. Please take a minute to thank our custodial staff for the many, many jobs that they do around the school to make it look as fantastic as it does!

Just a reminder that Wednesday, October 27 and Thursday, October 28 are minimum days with dismissal at 1:05.

Just a reminder that there is no school on Friday, October 8 or Monday, October 11. Enjoy your days off!

You can utilize two of our emails to cut down on paper and telephone calls. To report your child absent, please use this email: kesattendance@rsd17.org. To relay dismissal information, please use this email: kesdismissal@rsd17.org. Please remember to include your child's teacher in these emails as well. Thank you!

If your child is bringing a lunch from home, please remember to send in utensils that they will need. The kitchen's budget does not allow for them to provide utensils for anything other than purchased school breakfasts and lunches. Thank you for your help!

From the Health Office

We are off to a great start here at Killingworth Elementary School. Many thanks to all parents for following the guidelines and keeping your children home if they have symptoms consistent with COVID-19. Please feel free to check with me if you are unsure if your child should be attending school. As always, remember that students need to remain at home until they have been fever free (without the aid of fever-reducing medication) for 24 hours. The time is here to make an appointment to get a flu vaccine. Please see below for additional information regarding the clinic at the Connecticut River Area Health District.

Just a reminder to call the school as soon as you know that your child will be absent. You may also utilize the KES attendance email at kesattendance@rsd17.org at any time of the day or night. Please notify the office by 9:00 am if your child will be late to school as attendance is reconciled by this time each morning. Hoping you all enjoy the colors of autumn and stay healthy!

Welcome back to the KES art room! YAY! This year is off to a fantastic start. All the students are thrilled to be back in the art room, and so am I. Third graders are working on their abstract paintings. We are looking at and learning about artwork created by artist Wassily Kandinsky. In our paintings, we are using the elements of art and principles of design. Students have just completed a big unit on mixing and creating new colors with tempera paint. The second grade is working on creating their name using double lettering techniques and designing a colorful border using patterns. First grade just completed a rainbow name project using line, color, shape, and pattern. Kindergarten completed their rainbow clouds using markers and mixed media. We used line, color, and shape to create our masterpieces. All grades will be learning about primary and secondary colors while using the elements of art to create our projects. We will start our fall-themed art projects in the months to come. Be well and stay safe.

~ Mrs. Kelsey

Welcome back! I am very happy to be back and finally able to use our wonderful music room! We have had a great start singing, moving and dancing. A few things to look forward to are the first grade play (that will take place at the end of October). More information on that is coming soon. Third grader students will be receiving their recorders. This is a great opportunity for them to start learning an instrument. This will get them ready for the band program in the Intermediate School next year. Our recorder concert will take place in May.

~ Mrs. Rubalsky

Hello KES friends and families. I would like to thank all of the students and staff for welcoming me with open arms. So far my experience has been incredibly positive and fun. The students have spent the month of September working on social and emotional wellbeing, fitness, maintaining personal space, and having fun. Every class starts with a dynamic cardio warm up to prevent injuries. We then move into flexibility, muscular, and core strength exercises. After we are finished with all four components of fitness, we then play fun games! We have been playing games like freeze dance (with locomotor movements), choo choo train (follow the leader), rock paper scissor, hula hoops, and line tag. I look forward to continuing to make KES students healthy, strong and kind!

Go outside and enjoy the fall weather with friends and family!

~ Mr. Weeks

When Mrs. Honious decided to move to the Intermediate and Middle School, I was thrilled to be selected as the new Library Media Specialist at KES. My name is Liz Murphy and I have been an educator for about 18 years, most recently as a kindergarten teacher in New London. It has been my pleasure to welcome students back into the library after so many months away. Over the course of the month of September, each class wrote two class books--Some Things You Should Know About Us and Our Class's Favorite Things--as we all got to know each other. I have done my best to learn more than 200 names as quickly as possible! Each grade is currently learning or re-learning the process of taking a book out of the library, as well as how to care for these books. In addition, kindergarten and first grade have been working on rhyming and identifying important aspects of a book and story (author, illustrator, characters, etc.). Second and third grades have been reviewing different genres of books as we prepare to learn more about how libraries are organized; they are also learning to select "just right" books that will challenge, but not frustrate, them as readers. Since many students have been away from the library for so long, it may help to establish some routines, such as choosing a special and safe place for library books to live in your home and marking each child's library day on a calendar. Not sure what those days are? Check out the table on the library website, which can be accessed from KES's website. There's also a link on the library website to our Goodreads page, which I will update frequently to reflect what books each grade has read. Coming up in October: on the 27th our third graders will have a virtual visit with award-winning author Katherine Applegate. Until next month, happy reading!

~ Mrs. Murphy & Mrs. Hosking

The preschool students have had a wonderful start to the school year! We are making new friends and having a lot of fun playing and learning together. Preschool is working on learning the names of all of our new friends and teachers. We are learning how to learn and play together by sharing and taking turns with toys and materials. The AM preschool class is working on recognizing their names. We are also learning how to use materials like glue sticks, scissors, and crayons to make projects. The PM preschool class is working on learning the letters in their names and practicing cutting skills. Fall has arrived and we are looking forward to some fun fall activities in the classroom. We are sad to say goodbye to Ms. Zargo in Mrs. Treubig's class but are welcoming Ms. Avery, our new classroom paraprofessional.

~ Mrs. Fox & Mrs. Treubig

Kindergarten students have done a good job getting used to wearing their masks and following our new daily routines these first weeks of school. They have also been busy with reading, writing and math lessons, and are getting comfortable using the Lexia Core 5 language arts program on their Chromebooks. Both teachers and students in kindergarten are looking forward to cooler temperatures now that it is autumn!

~ Mrs. Isleib, Mrs. Pommer & Mrs. Sullivan

First graders have been busy establishing routines & procedures and building our classroom communities. We have also been productive diving into our curriculum. In reading we are focusing on encoding and decoding cvc words while using reading strategies: Lefty Larry, Grapheme Grasshopper, and Blendy Wendy. In writer's workshop, we are writing 'small moments' about our own lives and learning the components of a narrative writing piece. In math, we are learning how to 'count on' and use 'doubles' strategies to solve math problems within 10. We are also using Number Talks to help build our number sense. In science, we will be learning about light & sound. In social studies, we are focusing on communities and civic duties. For social emotional learning, we are focusing on our listening skills and following directions. It has been a great start to the school year and we are looking forward to all the fabulous learning ahead!

~ Mrs. Lomazzo, Mrs. MacPhail & Mrs. Roby

We are so proud of our second graders for the hard work they have shown in the first month of school! We are looking forward to each of their many successes this year.

In reading, we have been working on building reading fluency, stamina, and comprehension. In writing, our first unit is focused on writing small moment personal narratives. In this unit, students pull moments from their own life and work to stretch those moments by telling them bit by bit. Our math unit is focused on extending students' understanding of adding and subtracting within 20. Students are learning and practicing efficient strategies for adding and subtracting. During social studies, students will engage in the study of our local government and the various roles and responsibilities that are needed to make a community thrive.

As you can see, second graders are working diligently to grow as learners! The second grade teachers thank you for your support as we strive to make this a wonderful year for our students!

~ Ms. Burke, Mrs. Esposito & Mrs. Munz

Welcome to third grade! We are so excited to be your child's teacher! Since school has started, we have spent time getting to know each other while learning new routines of third grade. In reading, we started our first unit called Building A Reading Life, which focuses on creating strong reading habits and deepening understanding of critical comprehension skills such as inferring, summarizing, visualizing, and predicting. In math, our first unit focuses on rounding, adding, and subtracting three-digit numbers. In writing, students are working on writing focused, small moment stories from their lives. Students are learning to organize on a planner, write effective leads and endings, when and how to make a new paragraph, and stretch out their writing to show and not tell using a variety of elaboration strategies. In social studies, students are learning about Connecticut's place in this world. Students will then learn about the Indigenous People who lived here. We appreciate your support and look forward to working with you throughout the year!
